ASABE
Young Professionals Community

Join the Young Professionals Community!

Get involved with YPC and enhance your early career or graduate school journey! YPC offers diverse subcommittees tailored to your interests and time commitments. Connect with us to learn more about these engaging opportunities and join a vibrant community focused on your professional growth and networking. Together, let's empower the future of agricultural and biological engineering!

Email us at ypc@asabe.org and connect with us on LinkedIn, Facebook, and Instagram

Committee Name	Why Join?	Contact
"Graphics on Call"— Promotional Communications	● Design promotional content ● Connect with YPC members ● Working sessions for collaboration and content creation.	Dawood Atta: attadawood@ufl.edu
Technical Committee Involvement	● Contribute to ASABE's standards ● Focus on fostering young professional engagement in standards and technical matters.	Christine McMakin: christine.mcmakin@cnh.com
Young Professional Outreach	● Grow and retain YPC and undergraduate membership ● Event planning ● Monthly meetings for event planning and idea generation.	Ayesha Sadia: ayesha.sadia@uky.edu
E-2050 Global Engagement Sub-Committee	● Influence ASABE's global engagement initiatives ● Collaborate with the AMAA team ● Shape programs catering to young professionals' needs and enhance ASABE's global presence.	Shubhangi Arvelli: sarvelli@ksu.edu AND Akingbasote Tutuola: tutuolaakingbasote@gmail.com
Annual International Meeting YPC Events	● Plan YP-focused events at the Annual International Meeting in July ● Planning for AIM events and meetings.	Oluwatuyi Olowoyeye: olowoyeyeoluwatuyi@gmail.com
Graduate Student Involvement	● Brainstorm ideas to improve the grad school journey. ● Plan workshops and seminars addressing the needs of graduate students and encourage member retention.	Caden Wade: wadecade@msu.edu
Publications Council Subcommittee	● Write scientific stories and create content for Resource magazine	Roselle Barretto: rosellebarretto2937@gmail.com